WILL YOU GET YOUR SHARE?

Hard times invariably benefit the Seed Business. It is inevitable then that the present season will prove one of the best in the history of the industry.

There will be no lack of finances, inasmuch as all agencies, Banks, Insurance Companies, Land-owners and Government Relief Committees are cooperating to supply the farmer with his full seed requirements. To do otherwise would be folly--the same as depriving the skilled workman of his tools.

Another important factor is--that the stocks of seed left in the farmers hands are negligible, and the so-called "farmer to farmer" movement will be of smaller volume than for many years.

Naturally, the demand must be supplied through local dealers, and a golden opportunity is presented to retrieve loss of profit in reduced sales of other lines.

PREPARE NOW and see that you get your full share of this profitable business.
